

Evaluating a Landscape View

		Strongly agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly disagree
Natural features	There are several different landforms (e.g. hills, valleys, estuaries, cliffs) that give an interesting view.	10	8	6	4	2
	The view has some pleasant wooded country.	5	4	3	2	1
	The view has some pleasant open country.	5	4	3	2	1
Artificial features	The style and materials of the buildings adds interest to the view.	5	4	3	2	1
	The buildings fit in well with the landscape.	5	4	3	2	1
	There are no artificial features which spoil the view (e.g. rubbish dumps, pylons, telegraph poles).	5	4	3	2	1
	There are artificial features which add interest to the view (e.g. historical buildings, ponds, bridges, pier).	5	4	3	2	1
Uses of the land	The farmers' use of the land adds interest to the view.	10	8	6	4	2
	The landscape would provide interest and enjoyment for many people (e.g. walkers, tourists, cyclists).	10	8	6	4	2
Personal feelings	The view has interesting or pleasant features in the foreground.	5	4	3	2	1
	The view has interesting or pleasant features in the background.	5	4	3	2	1
	The different colours in the view blend well together.	10	8	6	4	2
Overall impression	The view is beautiful.	10	8	6	4	2
	The landscape needs to be specially conserved because it has such an interesting variety of features.	10	8	6	4	2